

Making a difference, working on international projects, taking responsibility and still not following a dress code?

Welcome to Traveltainment, a company of the Amadeus IT Group SA with about 15,000 employees worldwide. You see beyond the end of your nose and are into further training?

Then you are exactly right for the leading provider of a global, multichannel capable sales platform for travel services.

The big international travel portals like TUI, FTI, HolidayCheck and Expedia as well as several thousand travel agencies rank among our customers.

To support our team,
we are looking for a
DevOps Engineer
Web Application (f/m)
at the Aachen/Würselen location

Martin J. from Aachen
DevOps Engineer
and passionate hobby cook

What you will do at our company

- _ Independent further development of our products and platforms in an agile work environment.
- _ Implementation of the DevOps mindset and consideration of topics like load balancing, configuration, logging and monitoring already when developing solutions.
- _ Setting the focus on the customer by means of user interaction tracking, A/B testing etc. during development.
- _ Collaboration with other teams in the DevOps area, support of customer and internal projects.
- _ Control and optimization of the operation of highly available server clusters.

What you contribute to our company

- _ Developer background and at the same time experiences with the administration of servers and services.
- _ Curiosity, motivation and sense of responsibility.
- _ Technical skillset: Angular 5+, Java UI backend, test driven development, openShift or similar.
- _ Methodical knowledge: Agile, Scrum, ideally Kanban.
- _ Very good German and good English skills.

Why it is worthwhile for you to move to Traveltainment

- _ As part of the Amadeus group, we work internationally with the colleagues on joint projects.
- _ We offer you the opportunity to do further training throughout the group.
- _ Help to actively create the way into the agile world.
- _ Working time is a matter of trust at our company and should be fun.
- _ Stay as you are – instead of dress code, we offer individuality.
- _ Exclusively for our employees, there are special offers around the topics holiday, travelling, technology, fashion and many more.

What else? Also besides work, there are many options at our company: Playing billiards or kicker, eating together in the canteen or enjoying the sunshine on the terrace!
